A dispatch dated London, September 30, says: "It is reported on the Continent that Napoleon has addressed a note to the sovereigns of the South German States on the subject of their relations with Prussia; and that in this note the French Emperor, after calmly discussing the last circular of the Prussian Cabinet urging German unity, asks the Southern potentates to pledge themselves not to pass the Main and merge their countries in the new Confederation of the North."

General Pope regards it as his duty to reconstruct the State of Georgia, in the interest of the Radical party. He orders the election of one hundred and sixty-seven delegates to the State Convention, and has so arranged the districts as to enable the Radicals with the negro vote to elect one hundred and two delegates certainly, and perhaps several more. He does not allow the counties to elect the delegates, but lays the State off into districts and apportions the delegates among the districts so as to bring about the result indicated.

The Punishment of Convicts.

How He Whips White Men and Negroes.

Among the many strange and startling facts brought to light to-day by this examination, the following will perhaps be new to our readers, which was drawn out by a question of William G. Brien, Esq., to Thomas H. Lusty, witness in the cause. Mr. Brien said: "How did Colonel Hull enforce the rules of discipline in the Penitentiary?" Mr. Lusty answered as follows: "Well, I am not prepared to say much about that. I never saw the discipline of the convicts. I saw them when I went in to see a flogging one night. I was invited to go in and see the flogging. I was told that they were going to have a general melee. So I went in. They commenced whipping them. There were sixteen whipped [illegible] I was told [illegible] number was going to be whipped, one of the guards said: 'Frank, come; you are going to [illegible] the Penitentiary.' F. Crew, Hull's deputy warden, said: 'D—n the difference, I can't see them all alike. If he is not guilty, he will be, some time.'"

Question by Mr. Brien: How were they placed when they were whipped?

Answer—They were ordered to lie down on the floor; their pants were stripped down to their knees, and their shirts were rolled up on their shoulders; if the whip came down too heavily and if the convict didn't like it, the guard was ordered to put one foot on the convict's hand and the other on his neck; by the time they were done whipping, the convict's pants would be nearly off; they were [illegible] the cotton [illegible] they twisted around any, they would get it a little higher up.

Question—Now, what sort of instrument did they whip them with?

Answer—The whipping was done with a broad strap cut into strips; it was a strap of thick leather and it was cut into four strips and put in a handle; the leather was about sixteen inches long and was put in a turned handle and screwed to it. Frank Crew was the whipper until he got tired, and then he would engage somebody else. Three or four men were tired out that night. I would never be willing to witness so barbarous a spectacle again. I have known them to be taken into rooms and whipped. Jeff Morris, who [illegible] escaped and [illegible] captured, was among the number whipped that night. I thought, then, they would never get through whipping him. His buttocks were swollen up like bladders before they were done with him. They would groan and cry and beg for mercy hundreds of times. The reply was, "G—d d—n you lie still or I will give you more."

On the cross-examination the witness stated that Frank Crew was Hull's deputy warden. Hull was not present when the sixteen were whipped, and don't know whether it was told to Hull, but he has heard Hull order a convict to be whipped. On the re-examination of Mr. Brien, the witness stated that if Hull had exercised ordinary diligence, he could have known all these practices. A young man was sick and had been taking medicine, and in consequence had frequently [illegible] was [illegible] it was [illegible] that he had taken medicine not that morning, but the night before. Whereupon Hull ordered him to be stripped and ten stripes with a four thonged whip to be inflicted upon his bare body.

SECRETARY FLETCHER COMES BACK.

Where Grant Stood Etc.

MR. MERCER: I regret to feel called upon to reply to a card from the Governor of the State. I have heard of no other person who construed my speech into an attack upon the Governor, and certainly nothing was farther from my intention. The speech was provoked by repeated attacks upon me by non-resident adventurers, and by repeated declarations that native Tennesseans and old citizens were all unworthy of trust—that Tennessee loyalty was all a delusion—that no man who had ever lived south of the Ohio, during the days of slavery, could be relied upon. I intended to resent and repel these attacks and shall do so again, if occasion requires, regardless of assaults from any quarter, high or low.

Every candid and fair minded man with whom I have conversed, who read the paragraph in my speech to which the Governor excepts, considered him excused and defended by it instead of being attacked.

Indeed the Governor seems to have perused it twice and considered of it a week before he could find anything in it to take exception to, and then he had to divide a sentence and omit the greater portion of it before he could imagine himself assailed. I reproduce the entire paragraph, and submit to a candid people that it is couched in fair language and is eulpatory and defensive of the Governor:

"I have been asked repeatedly to-day, if Governor Brownlow had espoused the cause of a particular candidate for Mayor, and I am told the aforesaid Chief of Staff so declares. I know nothing on this subject. I feel sure, however, that if the Governor was here on the ground he would do no such thing, as he would consider it did not comport with the dignity of his office to interfere in any way except to keep the peace and inforce the law. If it be so, however, that his Excellency has taken sides, I am sure he has been misled and [illegible] to say to you, fellow citizens, that he is only one man and each of you is another—the one as free as the other. If he has been misled and imposed upon, that is no reason you should be."

The sentence next to the last may be offensive, but I hope not.

I did not make the impression that his Excellency "had pitched into a local quarrel." That impression was made by the peerless hero of "talents, integrity and loyalty," who fought his way under Burnside to Tennessee, "and whose splendid achievements by arms" the Governor so much extols. This General Thomas, No. 2, (who will hereafter be confounded in the public mind with the hero of [illegible] Thomas,) is [illegible] to [illegible] his [illegible] Certain it is that the Governor was so represented continually, and that fellow referred to as authority.

The Governor will not be able to prove by D. W. C. Senter, that I urged him to appoint J. J. Noah to the office of Chancellor, or anything else. In 1865, upon the urgent application of Mr. Arnell, under a general authority from the Governor, I issued a commission to Noah, as Attorney General of the Columbia District, without conferring with the Governor on the subject. I have no doubt I afterwards spoke of Noah's shrewedness and familiarity with old authors, but it was at a time when he was not an applicant for office. The Governor seizes upon a casual conversation of this kind with a view to cast the odium of Noah's appointment to the office of Chancellor upon me. I protest against this, as his Excellency well knows that by letters and [illegible] I protested against his appointment to the high office of Chancellor. I conclude in the Governor's own language, "To the people I hand over these attacks from an unexpected quarter, and am willing to abide their verdict."

A. J. FLETCHER.

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Stirring Speeches by Mayor Hoffman and Governor Seymour.

ALBANY, NEW YORK, October 3.

The Democratic convention was called to order by Samuel S. Fulton, who nominated Mayor Hoffman temporary president, which was carried amidst cheers.

Mayor Hoffman made a speech claiming a Democratic victory in November, denouncing the Radical party and negro suffrage; contradicting the views of Senator Conkling and Representative Cannon; asserting the registration laws as unfair to adopted citizens; denouncing the excise laws as odious and oppressive. In regard to the national debt, he said the Democrat party would pay every dollar in spirit as well as in bond, but it could only be paid when the Government passed into the hands of an economical party, and when the present enormous burden of taxation was reduced.

Horatio Seymour was chosen permanent President. Taking the chair, Governor Seymour said: "We cannot, if we would, escape from confronting the problems of the day. Neither safety, honor or patriotism will suffer us to stand dumb or inactive. In the day of danger we have put down the rebellion, we are now struggling with revolution. The first was sectional, the last universal. The first sought to divide our country, the last threatens to destroy it."

If this revolution is [illegible] its logical, just conclusion, and it must not roll on the necks of the majority of the American people and stop there, but numbers must be represented, not rotten boroughs or sham States. We implore the Senators not to begin the revolution but be content with your vast power. Your organization is at war with universal suffrage and imperial representation. If you continue your usurpation the country may not be content with driving you back within the constitutional limits; it may go further, and acting upon doctrines you assert, it may crush you out and make another Senate based in truth on manhood suffrage.

The country needs peace, but if you have revolution it cannot stop at any calmness. You may mark out New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Ohio, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota and Michigan, with a majority of the people, all of which are now virtually disfranchised, in your body, for they are controlled by the representatives of a quarter of our population, and if our Government is to be respected will have their full rights.

Governor Seymour devoted much of his speech to the financial condition. He opposed repudiation. He said the reports of the Secretary of the Treasury show we could swiftly wipe out our debt if our income was not devoted to partisan purposes. It is said it is repudiation to force our legal tender upon the bondholders. What makes it so? The low credit of the country; build that up, make your paper good as gold, and this question cannot come up. He appealed to bondholders, with whom we are struggling to keep faith, not to add three-fold to these burdens by upholding a policy which distracts our country, endangers society, corrupts our Government and oppresses labor.

After alluding to the immense amount drawn from the people in taxes on alcohol, one hundred and fifty millions of which is corruptly divided among officers of the law and in violation of the law, he said: Give us back our commerce, lessen the taxation of the North; shorten the hours of labor for our mechanics; raise the price of our securities; give us back our Union; let us fight for our fireside rights; for freedom of opinion; and for an honest management of public opinion. Above all let us do battle for the salvation of the Union, and may God defend the right.

A committee on resolutions was appointed, after which Hon. James S. Thayer and A. O. Hall addressed the convention, which adjourned till to-morrow.

EX-PRESIDENT DAVIS.

His Coming Trial.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Post, under date of October 1st, says:

Hon. James Lyons, of Virginia, one of the counsel for Jefferson Davis, stopped here yesterday on his return from Canada, where he had been to consult with his client relative to the approaching trial in November. Mr. Lyons says the defendant is ready and anxious for a trial. The line of defense will be to admit all the facts and deny the legal conclusions. It will be contended that the recognized constitutional doctrine prior to the war, as taught by the North and South, was that the citizen owed his first allegiance to his State. If having immediate control of his life and property, treason to the State involved the loss of both, and in a controversy between the State and the Federal Government, if adhesion to the State was treason to the Federal Government, the citizen was so circumstanced that he was guilty of treason whichever side he espoused. It will be denied that our Government could have been so framed as to involve the citizens in treason with a loss of property and life in spite of any effort on his own part to prove loyal. The constitutional question is one which had never been judicially settled, and as the "State Rights" view of it had generally been taught and maintained by the leading men of all sections, the defense will claim that the opposite doctrine cannot now be settled for the first time by the conviction and punishment of Jefferson Davis. They regard the question as now fully settled by the war, outside of the Constitution, but will deny the justice of applying the decision to transactions happening before the question was settled.

MISSISSIPPI ITEMS.

Colonel W. W. W. Wood, of Natchez, is dead.

The paper mill at Chatawa, Pike county, Mississippi, is nearly completed.

Harry Moss, late of the Vicksburg Times, is now connected with the Evening Telegraph of that city.

The cars from Meridian are now examined east of Jackson by a health officer.

The Goodman Star says Attala, Leake and Holmes counties will go by very large majorities, against a convention.

The Yazoo Banner announces that Dan Wooldridge, a conservative negro, will be a candidate for Congress in that district.

The Crystal Springs News also mentions that a colored shoemaker of its acquaintance, Tom by name, will offer himself at the proper time for Congressional honors.

The Liberty Herald thinks it will be a hard matter in Amite county to find competent persons to act as judges and clerks of the election. None of the whites can take the oath, and only two or three of the negroes can read or write.

The New Record, published at Houston, Chickasaw county, has reports from large numbers of people in the prairie region, all of which speak more cheerfully of the cotton crop than heretofore.

The Brandon Republican says that Richard Cooper came home from the late speckled convention utterly disgusted with the action of the negroes and the Yankees, and that he will no longer affiliate with them.

The office of sheriff of Hinds county, Mississippi, having recently become vacant by the resignation of Colonel Samuel E. Thomas, General Ord, commanding Fourth Military District, has appointed Mr. Thomas Palmer sheriff of that county.

Messrs. George L. Potter, David Shelton, Ed. M. Yerger, W. E. Rose, and W. J. Bracey, Central Executive Committee, call a convention of the Constitutional Union party of Mississippi to meet at Jackson on the 13th of October.

The Holly Springs Reporter says there will be a grand picnic of the Masonic fraternity, in that place, on the 10th of October next, at which it is expected that "Brothers Albert Pike, of Memphis, and D. B. Wright, of Tippah county, will be present and address the craft."

The Winona Vidette of the 28th says that on Tuesday a quarrel arrose between a Frenchman the name of Morris Delor and a negro by the name of Lun Poe, in which the latter received a mortal shot, killing him in a few minutes. The negro had a pistol in one hand, cocked, and a stick in the other, at the time of the shooting. Delor was arrested.

On Thursday of last week the authorities of Canton passed an ordinance to establish quarantine on the railroad four miles south of that place. All cars coming from the south are required to stop at the quarantine station, where they are boarded by a health officer, who makes a thorough examination into the sanitary condition of the passengers, and has all goods ventilated.

ALABAMA ITEMS.

Tom Peters and Johnnie Leach are about to publish a Radical paper at Moulton.

The Mobile theatrical season will commence on the 15th of October. It promises to be a very brilliant one. On the 28th, the Black Crook will be brought out.

Mrs. Mary Schuster, wife of Mr. John Schuster, of Mobile, died on the 26th instant, at Butler, in the 28th year of her age.

The editor of the Choctaw Herald has been presented with a cluster of apples, the third growth in the present year of a tree near Butler.

The North Alabamian says several negroes lost their votes at Tuscumbia, not being able to remember the names under which they registered.

The returns of two days have been received from fifteen counties of Alabama. The number of registered voters is 61,400, and the number of votes polled 34,360, being 8,360 more than the required majority of one-half.

At Talladega, lately, a colored woman stepped off an unprotected balcony and was killed. Three or four days ago a freedman tried the experiment in the same place, and lost a leg.

The Montgomery Mail says that at the election there numbers of negroes called for "forty acres and a mule," after they had "put the thing in the box."

The residence of Mr. W. K. Paulding, six miles from Uniontown, was robbed on Wednesday last of one hundred and eighty-five dollars and a quantity of clothing and laces. [illegible] arrested the [illegible] to

TUESDAY, : : : : : : : OCTOBER 8, 1867

THE AVALANCHE makes its appearance this morning greatly enlarged and otherwise improved. This change will increase our expenses thirty dollars per day and we look to the public to remunerate us for this additional outlay by increased patronage. Newspapers will be of unusual interest during the next twelve months. It may be truly said that the times are pregnant with important events and thrilling interest—productive of more universal excitement and involving more important consequences than at any former period of the history of our country. Our State Legislature has already convened. Congress will soon be in session and the Presidential election takes place next year—all making a paper peculiarly interesting. Stirring events are before the country, and every man should keep posted. To be thus informed it is necessary to subscribe for a sound, consistent, reliable newspaper. We offer the AVALANCHE as such, and appeal to our friends for an increased circulation. We promise fidelity to the Southern people. The present is no time for truckling subserviency. The press, when free and unshackled, when untrammeled by cliques and partizans, and conducted in a spirit of honesty, boldness, independence, and patriotism, must prove the surest defense and protection to the permanency of our institutions and the liberty of the people. This result can only be obtained by forcing the newspaper press to rely for its success upon the spontaneous support of the public. The press will then receive the greatest public favor which is characterized by the highest talent, the most unswerving political integrity, and the most fearless advocacy of the true interests of the country. This course, finding the readiest response in the minds of the masses, appealing with unerring certainty to the hearts of the people, would produce a spirit of emulation among journalists as to which should be the most enlightened teacher and the most fearless advocate of public rights. We are determined to make the AVALANCHE worthy of the patronage of the masses, and we call upon them to aid us in extending our circulation. That we will hereafter, as heretofore, be much abused we will not deny, but abuse is the necessary price of success in any business, and we shall not take any especial pains to conciliate the enmity which our course may provoke.

THE responsibility of man for his belief is regarded as true, both in morals and religion. It is emphatically and especially true when such belief is found to control the conduct. A man that believes it right to steal, or rob, or murder, is regarded as a public enemy, and is dealt with accordingly. A certain party in this country has believed for more than a quarter of a century that the Constitution of the United States was a covenant with hell; that its provisions were not binding; that there was a higher law in man that was above the organic law of the land; and that no oath could bind a man to preserve or defend that noble instrument. That party has waged a relentless, persevering and violent war upon the Constitution almost since the formation of the Government. They have conquered. The work of our forefathers is destroyed. The Republic is dead. A vast empire, resting not on any fundamental law, but based solely upon the supposed will of the majority, has been substituted in the place of the model Republic. This empire is now controlled by the representatives of this party, claiming for itself supreme power as the Congress of the United States. It can impeach the President, through the Supreme Courts, destroy vested rights, confiscate property, establish negro equality, make the civil law tributary to military power, subject any act against life or property, either person or earth, God or man. All these powers they have usurped, and have trampled under foot the Constitution which they have sworn to support. Such a party, having inscribed upon its folds "Death to the Constitution," floated in triumph over the South, it floated over the ruins of the magnificent temple of Liberty. The mindless negro—a poor, nerveless serf—is to stand where HAYNE and FORSYTH and RANDOLPH and KING and POLK and JACKSON stood. Hung be the heavens in black, and covered be the earth in a pall of gloom. But who is responsible for all this? There is but one answer, and it comes with the crashes of thunder from every portion of a ruined country: The Radical party is alone responsible. Its sin is unpardonable, its guilt incalculable, and its punishment shall be the execrations of posterity throughout endless generations.

HENRY CLAY during his life time was not free from the shafts of calumny. He was subjected to that envy and detraction which follows every man in a country where the press is free. But the spontaneous homage shown to his patriotism and his statesmanship, proves that when a man is dead and the clouds and storms that beset and tormented his life have passed away, that the people know how to do justice to his memory. The name of HENRY CLAY is always suggestive of the grand old Whig party, when great men used to meet with colors flying, drums beating, cannons booming and arms glittering. The voice of HENRY CLAY ought still to be heard. At a time like the present, when passion, prejudice and devilish hate have taken possession of the land—when a set of fanatical fools and wandering mountebanks are strolling over the country, raving and shrieking like so many madmen, stirring up strife and discord; it is a fit occasion to wander back to the happy past—to the days of CLAY, and WEBSTER, and CALHOUN, and see how these sages predicted and foretold the evils that would overtake the country whenever fanaticism gained power. The following letter from Mr. CLAY contains wisdom; it is "like apples of gold in pictures of silver." He warns the country, in the most impressive language, against the very band of traitors and conspirators now yelping and barking at the heels of every man disposed to defend the Constitution and to give peace to the nation. Let every patriot, every friend and follower of HENRY CLAY, read the following truthful words. He peered into the dark future and predicted the very evils that now beset the country:

LETTER OF MR. CLAY TO MR. COLTON.

ASHLAND, September 2, 1843.

MY DEAR SIR: Allow me to suggest a subject for one of your tracts, which treated in your popular and condensed way, I think would be attended with great and good effect. I mean Abolition.

It is manifested that the ultras of that party are extremely mischievous, and are hurrying on the country to fearful consequences. They are not to be conciliated by the Whigs. Engrossed with a single idea, they care for nothing else. They could see the administration of the government precipitate the nation into absolute ruin, before they would lend a helping hand to arrest its career. They would treat worst, and denounce most, those who treat them best, but who so far agreed with them as to admit slavery to be an evil. Witness their conduct toward Mr. Briggs and Mr. Adams, in Massachusetts, and toward me.

I will give you an outline of the manner in which I would handle it. Show the origin of slavery. Trace its introduction to the British Government. Show how it is disposed of by the Federal Constitution. That it is left exclusively to the States, except in regard to the fugitives, direct taxes and representation. Show that the agitation of the question in the free States will first destroy all harmony, and finally lead to disunion—perpetual war—the extinction of the African race—ultimate military despotism.

But the great aim and object of your tract should be to arouse the laboring classes in the free States against Abolition. Depict the consequences to them of immediate Abolition. The slaves, being freed, would be dispersed throughout the Union, they would enter into competition with the free laborer, with the American, the Irish, the German; reduce his wages, be confounded with him, and affect his moral and social standing. And as the ultras go both for Abolition and amalgamation, show that their object is to unite in marriage the laboring white man and the laboring black woman, to reduce the laboring white man to the despised and degraded condition of the black man. I would show their opposition to colonization. Show its humane, religious and patriotic aim; that they are to separate those whom God has separated. Why do the abolitionists oppose colonization? To keep and amalgamate together the two races in violation of God's will, and to keep the blacks here, that they may interfere with, degrade and debase the laboring whites. Show that the British Government is cooperating with the Abolitionists, for the purpose of dissolving the Union, etc. You can make a powerful article, that will be felt in every extremity of the Union. I am perfectly satisfied it will do great good. Let me hear from you on this subject.

HENRY CLAY.

THE very first article in the Mound City, Illinois, Journal of the 28th ultimo, which has heretofore been considered loyal Democratic, lets fly a shaft at C. L. VALLANDIGHAM, which for meanness, discourtesy and Radical vituperation has not recently been exceeded—not even by BEN. WADE, the chartered blackguard. Here it is:

The most efficient helper the Republicans of Ohio have in their present political contest is Vallandigham. He paralyzes the Democratic party as effectually as the nightmare does its subject. If successful in the political campaign of this fall, the Republicans of Ohio ought to reward Vallandigham with any office he may ask for.

We have watched Mr. VALLANDIGHAM'S course closely. He has argued the issues between the parties with great ability, and has painted the hideous hues of Radicalism so that they are only to be seen to be abhorred. We do not know what cross-grain has knocked the editor of the Mound City Journal on the head. Perhaps a paragraph has crept into his paper, without "the accompaniment" intended, for why he should join in the "hue and cry" against one of the soundest politicians and purest patriots in the land, we certainly are at a loss to determine. It may be set down to eccentricity and caprice, but the editor should hardly be held accountable for malice prepense.

WE congratulate the stockholders of the Memphis and Ohio railroad upon the good sense which characterised their action on yesterday in re-electing the old Board of Directors, and averting the calamity which must have resulted to their road had their choice determined otherwise. The city of Memphis is to be congratulated upon this result, assuring, as it does, the thorough repair of this great work, and its establishment and habilitation as a first class road. Its association with the Louisville and Nashville railroad assures it ample means to make it everything it should be, and instead of retarding or setting back Memphis, as has been ignorantly predicted, it interests directly an amount of capital in the prosperity of the city, which could not by any other means have been attracted to its advantage. We feel assured that in a very short time a fine depot building will substitute the existing temporary arrangement, and that other and material improvements will be made which will afford a practical vindication of the policy which the AVALANCHE has deemed it proper to pursue with reference to the railroad.

WE are glad to inform our readers that Mr JOHN MITCHEL, the distinguished Irish, and we may add, Southern patriot, is about to resume his brilliant career as a journalist, as editor and proprietor of the Irish Citizen, a weekly paper to be published in New York, the first number of which will appear on the 12th of October. We trust a liberal support will be extended to Mr. MITCHEL from the South, and that his fearless and nervous pen will be enabled to pursue its career, free from the embarrassments of a feeble support, and upheld by the appreciation of a discerning and liberal list of paying readers.

A gentleman in Petersburg has succeeded in teaching four chickens to draw a miniature wagon, in which a big white rooster rides. They rattle over a lawn with great speed, while the rooster looks as grave as a bishop.

A [illegible] of Derby, Connecticut, laid out with flowers, etc., in his parlors, the "corpse" of a deceased poodle dog, going so far as to [illegible] satin therefor, and to transport her burial in New York.

Patrick and Thomas Donnelly were arrested in New York, Friday, for assaulting Anson Herrick, editor of the New York Atlas.

The Turkish Government has apologized for the insult recently offered to the American Ambassador.

The Catholic Bishops of Austria have protested against any rupture of the concordat between Austria and Rome.

Special dispatches from Washington state that General Sherman's visit to the capital has no reference to the position of Secretary of War now held by General Grant.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Thursday says: "The Tennessee Legislature meets next Monday. Its principal business will be to elect Governor Brownlow to the United States Senate."

A private letter from Fernandina, Florida, says the residence of ex-United States Senator Yulee was recently mobbed by negroes, and seriously damaged with stones and other missles.

The Democracy of Massachusetts have nominated for Governor John Quincy Adams, son of Charles Francis Adams, who is now Minister to England, and grandson to ex-President John Quincy Adams.

Colonel Ira R. Lewis, an old citizen of Texas, and one of the founders of the town of Matagorda, died on the 24th ultimo, at the residence of his son-in-law, Colonel Bryan, at Independence, Washington county, Texas.

The internal revenue officers made an attempt to seize certain illicit whisky distilleries near Philadelphia, but were beaten off by the workmen. United States Deputy Marshal Schuyler was so badly beaten that his life is despaired of.

A Washington special says an effort will be made to amend the National Bank law so as to give the Secretary of the Treasury and Controller of Currency the right to call for a bank statement for any week during the quarter.

General Grant declined to attend the farewell dinner to Senor Romero, but wrote a letter assuring him of his great gratification at the success of the Mexican Liberals. He says their cause was our cause to an extent that the American people have not realized.

Jay Cooke made over a million dollars profits out of Government securities during the war. He pays no taxes on this amount, but draws as interest in gold each year, eight hundred and forty thousand dollars! Quite a little contribution from the tax payers of America.

A jocund person is the editor of the Alabama Argus: "We see that the sheriff, during our absence, has advertised the Argus for sale. We hope the bidders will have a merry time of it. If the sheriff can sell it, he can do more than we could. Like a damp percussion cap, we think it will fail to go off."

On the great Russian railroad, operated by the Winans, of Baltimore, the cars are two stories high, the upper story being for sleeping at night. The few bridges on the line, which are of great hight, admit of this, and the plan works well. The operators of the road are for the most part Americans.

The New York Herald, that understands how and for what purpose the National Banks were organized, says: "Mr. Chase's financial establishment must destroy the country unless the country is before hand with it. The National Banks are the most gigantic swindles ever deliberately organized outside of a den of thieves."

It can be shown that 2,000,000 Radical votes were represented in Congress by 143 members, while 1,600,000 Democrats had but twenty-eight. This lopsided arrangement was brought about by a dishonest distribution of districts. The same device is practiced in Georgia, says the Augusta Constitutionalist, to give negro minorities an actual representative majority.

Wm. G. Brownlow, senior editor of Knoxville Whig and Governor of Tennessee, says the Chattanooga Union of Sunday, passed through that city last night, on route for Nashville, where he is to be inaugurated on Monday. The Governor is quite feeble, but expects to live long enough to insure the safety of loyal men. He was attended by his son John, and others of his staff.

The Navy Department offered seventeen vessels for sale at New York on the 1st instant. Eleven were sold for three hundred thousand dollars. The remaining six were withdrawn, the price bid not being equal to the government appraisement. The old receiving ship North Carolina, sold for thirty thousand dollars. The great sidewheel steamer Rhode Island sold for seventy thousand dollars.

The Shelbyville Union says the Hon. Edmond Cooper still remains in Washington, and is likely to remain there for some time to come. Possibly he may return during this month for a day or so, but if he does, he will return to Washington. At Washington he is a guest at the White House, and every faculty of his great mind is being exerted in aiding the President to avert the perils with which the Republic is threatened.

Under the act of 1836, chapter 63, section 4, of the Code, providing for the pardon of all well behaved convicts whose time had nearly expired, to prevent disability, Governor Brownlow has ordered the following prisoners to be released: Victoria Sevier, of Knox county; George Henderson, of Weakly; James H. Miller, of Hardeman; John A. Smith, of Hardeman, and George Arden, of Rome.

The great trot over the Fashion Course, for a purse of one thousand dollars, mile heats to harness, between Lady Thorne, Mountain Boy, Bruno and Lucy, came off on the 30th ult. It was the best race ever witnessed on Long Island. Lady Thorne won the first heat in 2:25½, Mountain Boy, second and Bruno distanced. Mountain Boy won second heat in 2:24½. Lady Thorne won third and fourth in 2:24 and 2:24.

For the relief of the Radical perturbation about the Maryland militia, which, it has been charged, is so dreadfully disloyal, and is to be used by the President for some horrible purpose, an official statement of the organization, equipment, etc., of the same has been forwarded to Washington for publication. It seems that the commander-in-chief is an ex-General in the Union army, and that all the inferior officers were either Union men or soldiers in the Federal army.

Thurlow Weed thus warns his party: "The day approaches—nor is it distant—when the Republican party will deeply deplore its infatuation; when its eyes will be opened to the dangers which threaten it; when the folly of committing it to the leadership of Sumner, Stevens, Butler, etc., etc., will be apparent; and when the attempt to demoralize suffrage by the admission of masses of persons who, as it is admitted in a national appeal, are 'ignorant of the means by which suffrage is expressed,' will recoil, not merely to 'plague the inventors,' but to jeopardize, if not overthrow our Republican ascendancy."

MR. J. W. WILLIAMS, OF MARSHALL COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

He Never Defended a Man for Chicken Stealing.

It appears that our North Mississippi correspondent has offended Mr. J. W. Williams, one of the Radical candidates for the Convention in Marshall county, Mississippi, inasmuch as he relates that said Williams did at one time, as a lawyer, have a case in which he defended a man for chicken stealing. Mr. Williams writes us a letter, which we would gladly publish entire had we the space; but of which the following are the material portions in defence of himself against this grave and momentous charge:

I never volunteered in any case in my life that I now remember, and never defended a man for chicken stealing at any time. At the last March term of our Circuit Court, I was a feed counsel to defend Abram Petre, indicted for assault with intent to kill a colored man who had attempted to ravish his wife, and his Honor, Judge Clayton, betraying as was anxiety to assist a man whom he had been instrumental in having arrested, did appoint abler counsel, and was the cause himself of putting the case in such confusion that it could not be tried at that term of the court. This must be the case to which your correspondent alludes, as I had but one other criminal case at that term of the court, the State vs. Jones, for counterfeiting. If I am a fool, it is a misfortune peculiar to myself, but I can afford to sympathise with a man, who, if the Scriptures be true, is in danger of hell fire.

I will put [illegible] your columns a defense of my political position; suffice it to say that I am discharging what I believe to be a conscientious duty, in compliance with covenant obligations, and if the charge is hereafter made and sustained, by an enlightened and virtuous public opinion, of broken faith on the part of my native and beloved State, I would like counsel to exhibit, for me and mine, that it was done under my grave protest.

Public Sale

OF

ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 14th of November, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Cantrell avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence within the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.

THE SUBDIVISION OF THE GROUNDS will be in lots of about FIVE ACRES, according to plats to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.

BEING DETERMINED TO SELL, I shall offer the following liberal

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSTALMENTS, with interest from sale. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must necessarily increase in value, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement.

ROYSTER, TREZEVANT & CO., Auctioneers. oct7

The Buntyn Tract at Public Sale.

DESIROUS of carrying out as speedily as possible the provisions of the Will of G. Buntyn, deceased, in the disposal of his Homestead Tract, WE WILL OFFER AT PUBLIC SALE the remaining portion of the Tract, containing of about

SEVENTY-FIVE LOTS,

Varying from two to ten acres in size, embracing with the [illegible] acres all the wood land lots on the Tract.

The high reputation for fine health which this locality enjoys, and the choice of the most eligible neighborhood with the city by railway or dirt road, give to these lands advantages that must be apparent to the business men of Memphis, as a cheap, convenient and pleasant point at which to establish their family residences, combining so fully the advantages of town and country.

With the object of removing all difficulty in selling, we shall offer the property upon the following easy

TERMS—One-fourth cash, balance in 6, 12, 18 and 24 months' with interest. Warranty deeds given on the first lots, waiving redemption.

EVERY LOT PUT UP WILL BE SOLD WITHOUT RESERVE. Plans of the lots may be obtained at the office of the Auctioneers; each lot being staked so as to be examined before the sale.

Sale will be upon the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 16th of October, 1867. G. A. BUNTYN,
A. B. HAINES,
R. D. GOODWYN,
Administrators, with Will annexed.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous preparations advertised in the papers and which pretend to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved conclusive, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. The fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO'S medicines.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, and NERVOUSNESS, ANÆMIA, DEBILITY and EXHAUSTION OF THE SYSTEM, ARISING FROM LOSS OF BLOOD. It is particularly indicated to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup o Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, RICKETS, SCROFULOUS SORES, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood. It being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and OBSTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PHTHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most distressing symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as th's syrup is liable to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—Dr. Burin du Buisson's (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine) Digestive Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as DARTHOLOGIA, LONG AND DIFFICULT DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND LOINS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhœa.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an otherwise mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Suppressed Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron. This celebrated preparation has the advantage in preventing all constipation, and to contain a certain portion of manganese, considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of treatment by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found decidedly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

FROST.—On Sunday and Monday mornings there were slight frosts—the first premonition of winter, and the death of yellow fever.

DEAD.—Mr. Petit, well known as bookkeeper of the Commercial, and lately engaged on the Post died last night. We did not learn the cause of his death.

GRAND LARCENY.—Howard Williams was committed to jail yesterday, on a charge of grand larceny, by Justice Hall. He could not give $1,000 bond.

MOVED.—The clerk of the county court, Mr. John Loague, moved his office Saturday into the new court building, on the corner of Second and Union. The municipal court will move in a few days.

SUSPECTED.—John Halligan having stolen property in his possession was taken into custody, yesterday morning, by officer Slattery until he could account for the manner in which he acquired it.

RELIGIOUS MEETING.—An interesting meeting is progressing at the Central Methodist Church, on Union street. There will be prayer meeting at nine a.m., and preaching this evening at seven and a half o'clock.

POLICE COURT.—Thirteen cases were only attended to yesterday morning by Commissioner Richards, and only succeeded in collecting sixty-four dollars. Police business is rather dull.

STOLE A PISTOL.—Jane Lanaire stole a pistol, and that being against the code, and not being able to give two thousand dollars bond, she had to go to jail.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Wash Peoples attacked another negro on the bluff, and robbed him of all he had on his person. He was committed to jail without privilege of bail.

DISTURBING THE PEACE.—Lizzie Gray had M. Crawford and Terry Smith up before 'Squire Miller, yesterday, for disturbing the peace. 'Squire Miller let them go on payment of costs.

The Circus arrived yesterday, passed through the town in procession, showed at two o'clock and again at night. We have no means of knowing what kind of a show it is.

REVIVAL.—A revival has commenced at the Central Church on Union street. The pastor, Rev. J. T. C. Collins, is an earnest worker in the cause of religion, and we hope these meetings—which will last during the week—will be productive of much good.

MUST BE IN UNIFORM.—On and after Wednesday the police, when on duty, must always appear in uniform. No exceptions will be made, and any infraction of the rule will bring upon the offender a penalty.

MAN CUT.—An affray occurred yesterday morning in a saloon at Poplar street market, in which a man was cut by an ice pick in a horrible manner. We heard of it late last night, and could find out no particulars.

FOUND DEAD.—The body of a man was found last evening, about six o'clock, in an unoccupied house on Adams street, near the Whitmore House. The Coroner was sent for to hold an inquest, the result of which we have not learned.

LEAVES TO-DAY.—Miss Boyd leaves for Huntsville to-day, to fulfill a reading engagement in that city. From thence she goes to Nashville. We wish her all the success that her improving qualities as an actress merit and her graces as a woman will command.

MEMPHIS CITY SCHOOLS.—We have received the Fifteenth Annual Report of the Board of School Visitors of the Memphis City Schools, but as it did not come to hand before its main facts had been gleaned by our cotemporaries, we abstain from making extracts from its pages.

SHOOTING AT MASON'S DEPOT.—A colored man was shot on Saturday evening about six o'clock by a man named Poindexter. We could learn none of the particulars that we deemed reliable, other than that Poindexter avoided an arrest by going into Fayette county, on the line of which the depot is situated. The negro had been working in the vicinity.

PERSONAL.—W. H. Wood, Esq., Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue, has returned from a trip North.

General W. C. Whitthorne, of Maury county, during the war Adjutant General of the State, is in the city. We were glad to see him in such excellent health and spirits.

FUN AMONG THE BUTCHERS.—There was quite a time among the butchers yesterday morning at the Poplar street market, about the renting of the stalls. High words passed, and pistols would have been drawn but for interference. We suppress names, hoping that none of them will make cold meat of each other.

NEW MEMPHIS.—Owing to a non-arrival of the parts of "Caste," Lady Don did not appear, and the Marble Heart was substituted. To-night, our readers may depend upon it, they will have placed before them the great play which has created such a sensation wherever it has been produced.

FIRE AT THE TROTTING PARK.—This establishment, owned by Mr. Montana, and kept by Messrs. Montgomery and Wasson, was burned to the ground on Saturday night. A number of gentlemen were sitting in front of the saloon, but they did not discover that it was on fire until the roof fell in. We are sorry for this loss, as it was quite a pleasant place of resort for the gentlemen indulging in the sports of the turf.

ROBBED.—Sell Howell was robbed, yesterday, of a pocket book containing $500. It appears that Mr. Howell got up early in the morning from his bed in his hotel, and was preceding to the river when he discovered the loss of his pocket book. He immediately went back to his hotel, and found his room in darkness, which was not so before, as he had left the gas burning. On inquiring as to who turned out the gas it was ascertained it was done by a colored woman, and it is strongly suspected that she acquired the pocket book.

A CORRECTION.—The telegraphic dispatches of September 19th, by the transposition of words, substituted colored for Colorado. The Grand Lodge of the United States I. O. O. F. was in session in New York city, and granted a charter for the Grand Lodge of Colorado. The telegraph made it read colored men. We presume the wires thought everything was getting mixed as to color, and so came to the conclusion that one of the most extensive benevolent institutions ought to come in for her share.

LADY DON.—This lady was unavoidably detained at Humboldt, and was unable to reach here in time to have a proper rehearsal of the new play of "Caste," and did not appear last night. The books for the play miscarried, and were not here to enable the company to perfect their parts. She will certainly appear to-night. The press where she has been speak in most favorable terms of her acting. In St. Louis, where she played her last engagement, she was the recipient, on Friday night, of a magnificent service of silver, presented by the citizens as a testimonial of their high appreciation of her merits.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—Wm. Porter and Joseph Payne had a difference on Adams street yesterday afternoon which resulted in the gentlemen exchanging shots. The difficulty occurred in front of Colonel Forests' stable on Adams street, and for some time occasioned much excitement. They were arrested by officer Scott and taken to the first district station house, where a charge of shooting within the corporation was made against each, and they were liberated on putting up a forfeit to appear before the Commissioner this morning.

Ed. Worsham has on hand this morning Harper's Weekly, Frank Leslie, Record, Sunday Mercury, Scientific American, Album, German Leslie, New York Weekly, Army and Navy Journal, Yankee Notions, London News and Times, Frank Leslie's Budget of Fun, Banner of Light, Every Saturday, weekly part, Peterson's Lady's Book for November, Frank Leslie's Pleasant Hours, Police Gazette, Police News, Land We Love, American Miscellany; also a new magazine, entitled Broadway, Negro, by Ariel, and base balls.

FIGHT.—Two negroes indulged in a pugilistic encounter in the alley between Second and Third, in the neighborhood of Madison street, yesterday. A good deal of blood and wool was drawn, but the fight terminated at the approach of an officer. Both parties escaped.

The Old Board Triumphant.

The election for a Board of Directors of the Memphis and Ohio railroad for the ensuing year took place on yesterday. Notwithstanding the pen, ink type and paper consumed during the last week by the Memphis Bulletin, the old board was triumphantly elected.

Doctor Washington Bond, James T. Leath, Esq., and Esquire Chase were appointed judges.

Mr. Trezevant stated, after hearing the report, that he wished to withdrew all strictures he had heretofore made upon the management of the road.

A resolution was adopted for a committee to examine the books from the inception of the road to the 2d of September, 1867.

On motion, the thanks of the stockholders were voted to Governor Brownlow, for his extension of the time for the payment of the July interest to September 1st. The election for a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, resulted as follows: The first thirteen named gentlemen constituting the old Board were re-elected, Messrs. Hamilton, Rutledge and Hack, opposing candidates, were defeated: Amos Woodruff, 36,904; Nathan Adams, 36,904; Jas. P. Wood, 19,241; Geo. T. Taylor, 36,893; G. M. Bartlett, 20,626; C. B. Chu.ch, 20,626; J. H. Howell, 36,367; Wm. M. Farrington, 36,904; Edgar McDavitt, 36,904; B. C. Brown, 36,904; B. A. Williamson, 36,904; T. G. Smith, 36,586; I. M. Hill, 36,428; T. A. Hamilton, 16,276; J. M. Rutledge, 18,036; Wm. Hack, 16,276; scatterfog, 528.

PROPOSED COUNTY SEAT AT BARTLETT.

Views of a County Man.

GERMANTOWN, TENN., October 4, 1867.

EDITORS AVALANCHE.—In your issue of the 2d instant, you say "a petition to move the Circuit and County Courts from Memphis to the city of Bartlett, will soon be in circulation among our citizens for signatures." Now, Messrs. Editors, our country people are opposed to the removal of said Courts from Memphis. The Circuit Court being held in Memphis, relieves the countryman from jury service, which service is now done by the business men of the city—they having but little else to do.

Under the wise and judicious administration of the Honorable County Commissioners, we shall soon be relieved from work on the highways. So you see, Mr. Editor, under the present admirable arrangement of the Courts, we country's have but little public service to render, except the payment of taxes, which are enormous. If the business men of the city get up a petition to make a new county out of the Fifth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Civil Districts of Shelby county, we country's would sign to a man.

COUNTRYMAN.

THE YELLOW FEVER.—All along the lines of railroad leading from Memphis may be heard the most absurd stories of the prevalence of yellow fever in this city. Such news spreads as it goes, and when, five miles from Memphis, you hear of five deaths daily from this cause, fifty or seventy-five miles you hear of from fifty to a hundred. Each person who tells the story is bound to increase it in proportion to the number of times he tells it, or the credulity or fears of his auditors. Now, what are the facts, as reported by our Board of Health, as conscientious and as intelligent a body of physicians as are in the country. Ten persons died last week from this cause, only two of which originated here, the rest being cases brought to the city from below, and all being sporadic, or otherwise a greater number of cases would have resulted from these. The disease is no more present in Memphis at the present time than it is during any other season when it is epidemic in New Orleans. A few cases are brought to the city, but the first cool weather, or the first fall of the frost soon choke them out from want of causes to feed upon, and even if yellow fever was raging here the cold of the last few days would have rendered it inoxious. Certainly the sudden change of weather which has occurred operated fatally upon the few person, who were down with it, but the same cause which killed them prevented the disease from spreading, and our friends in the country need have no fears of coming to the city to follow their pursuits of pleasure or profit.

PISTOL SHOOTING.—We would direct the attention of the police to the fact that serious danger of life and limb is daily engendered by the promiscuous discharge of pistols all over town. The last case we have heard of occurred night before last on Exchange street, near Fourth, when an interesting little girl about four years old came near being wounded by this recklessness. She had but just finished reciting her lesson to her father, and went out on the portico, when a bullet struck a post of the awning, not more than one inch from her head and in a direct line with it. That bullet an inch lower would have rendered a happy household desolate. We ourselves, about three weeks ago, in returning from a visit about ten o'clock at night, were most disagreeably surprised on Brinkley avenue, near the intersection of Adams street, by a bullet whizzing past our head and lodging in the fence. The full charge of the revolver was discharged, and we could plainly hear the "thud" of the bullets as they struck the fence, and the least we can say about it is that it made us nervous, and were we armed, as we always intend to be when we go out in that neighborhood again, we would have returned the fire. Will the police pay some attention to this?

THE METROPOLITAN POLICE LAW.—On Saturday Chancellor Smith decided this law constitutional, and we suppose now the case will go to the Supreme Court. The Chancellor having thus declared the law constitutional his decision settles the question as to the points in the suit recently brought by the Mayor against Colonel Beaumont for a monthly return of the moneys he and his subordinates have collected from all sources. Mr. Lynn, as acting Mayor, (all honor to him for it) requested a statement from the police commissioners of such moneys received, according to requirements of the very law under which Beaumont was operating. The Commissioners refused, alleging as a cause of refusal that as the law was in the courts no such statement could be required until its constitutionality was authoritatively asserted. The case has been hanging fire for some time; but the decision above mentioned covers the point. The provision of the law is plain, and the law is declared constitutional. That being the case, how Colonel Beaumont can longer refuse to comply with the Mayor's request, does not appear. We hope the city authorities will press this matter to a speedy conclusion, and determine whether the police commissioners can set at naught any provisions of a law which do not please them, and rigidly enforce others inuring to their benefit.

MISS AVONIA JONES.—Our readers were no doubt pained, on Sunday morning, to read the announcement of the death of this most estimable lady and true artiste, which took place in New York, on Saturday, of consumption. Poor Avonia, she had promised to herself and us the pleasure of her first appearance after her trans-Atlantic voyage, but death interposed, and the voice we loved so well, and whose musical cadences yet vibrate upon the ear, is hushed in death, and is now only heard in angel choirs, the most seraphic of the seraphic. We all recollect the enthusiasm with which she was received here, and the golden opinions she won from all sorts of people, not only from her great abilities as an artiste, but from her qualities as a woman. Requiscat in pace.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the association was held at the County Court room on Sunday afternoon, the proceedings of which were highly interesting. A resolution was adopted earnestly inviting the co-operation of the ladies of Memphis in ministering to the wants of their own sex who may need their assistance. This could be done either by notifying the President of the association of their willingness to serve, or by forming an association of their own. Several cases of distress and destitution were reported, and several assignments to duty were made. A number of new members were admitted, and the association adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.—The City Council met yesterday afternoon in called session. As soon as the body was called to order, the committee appointed at a former session to cast the vote of the city in the election of directors for the Memphis and Ohio railroad, offered their resignations, which were severally accepted, and the Mayor and Chairman of the Board were instructed to cast the vote of the city. They were left entirely untrammeled, no instructions having been given them. They cast the vote for the old directors, thus insuring their election, and insuring the success of the road.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN PRINTER.—The friends of Mr. Thomas J. Edwards, for several years connected with the mechanical department of the Argus, will regret to learn that he died of yellow fever in New Orleans, a few days ago. Mr. Edwards was steady, industrious and courteous, and during his residence here made many friends. We learn that Messrs. Cowles, Sim, and several others of the craft well known here, are down with the fever in New Orleans.

The steamer St. Patrick will leave for Vicksburg and way landings this evening, at five p.m. James Sanlsbury, freight clerk, will be found at the Star wharf-boat, to receive freight for her.

We cannot enumerate the prices of our immense stock to be closed out—they are the lowest in order to insure an early sale. RICE, STIX & CO.

Jealousy Supposed to be the Moving Cause.

An inquest was held, yesterday, upon the dead body of a negro woman, named Eliza Merriweather, supposed to have been murdered by another negro woman named Sarah Merriweather. On a view of the corpse the sight it presented was ghastly and horrible in the extreme. The back of the head was sundered triangularly by two blows of an axe, and the space between the stands of the triangle was one mass of bloody jelly, the skull being rendered as soft as pulp, which alone must have been enough to have produced death. It appeared to us as if the unfortunate woman had been struck with the ax in front and fallen, one blow, the first one, rendering her almost insensible, and then had turned over on her face, when she received the two other ones, either of which would have been fatal. The cause which led to this most horrible murder is supposed to be jealousy. It appears that Sarah Merriweather was the wife of the man Merriweather before the war, and had lived with him a number of years, and we believe had several children by him. On gaining his freedom, Merriweather thought it also gave him freedom to take a new wife, which he did in the person of Eliza, who thenceafter became known as Eliza Merriweather, he having married her, and obtained a certificate of his marriage, we suppose, from the Freedmen's Bureau. This rendered Sarah miserable, and she remonstrated often with him on the subject, but he fell back on the fact that he had a certificate of his marriage with Eliza, and that Sarah had, now that they were both free, no claims upon him, and he would have nothing to do with Sarah. This, it is supposed, made Sarah infuriate, and made her determine to have revenge. She accordingly attacked her rival with an ax, and committed a most horrible murder. The murder was committed on Widow Pain's plantation, near White's Station, about nine miles from Memphis, to which place the Coroner was summoned, Sunday, and did not arrive in town again until Monday morning, having had much trouble in securing a jury of inquest. The verdict rendered by the jury was that Eliza Merriweather came to her death by a weapon supposed to be in the hands of Sarah Merriweather. A coroner's warrant was immediately issued for her arrest, and she was taken before Justice Hildebrand for examination.

THE STAR UNION LINE.—This well established, entirely reliable and admirably conducted transportation line, is prepared to take contracts on the best terms for freights going east or coming west. Its facilities are unsurpassed, as it has between twelve hundred and fifteen hundred cars of its own, by which it can ship freights without breaking bulk, save by the transfer between Louisville and Jeffersonville. There are special agencies at every important point, whose business is to provide against delay, and, in case of accident, hasten the requisite adjustment. It guarantees as great speed, and as much certainty, and as moderate charges as any other line, and has yet to record the first occasion when it failed to give entire satisfaction. Its arrangements are complete to forward freights to the North, North-west, East and Northeast, South and Southeast, and West, by the most available and speedy routes. To New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston, with corresponding cities, it has the facilities of "all rail," or "river and rail," as the shipper may elect. It is under the management, at this place, of our old friend, Captain James T. Bourne, as agent, assisted by Captain Alf. C. Tuther, who is familiar with the whole routine of the business from long connection with it; and this we can say for the manner in which it is conducted, it is as regular as a clock that is never permitted to run down. Shippers have been long acquainted with the activity and energy of Captain Bourne, who was one of the pioneer steamboat commanders, and has for many years conducted a most successful steamboat agency. There is one feature in his accepting a steamboat agency. He invariably declines, if he thinks he cannot do full justice to it. We have witnessed the very thing of which we speak, and know him to merit the title of "old reliable." The office of the Star Union Line is in Titus' Commercial building, opposite the Commercial Hotel, No. 12 Jefferson street, between Main street and Front Row, where there are the finest conveniences for the transaction of the large business which is constantly flowing in. Having taken the rooms recently occupied by the Hernando Insurance Company, on the ground floor, and fitted them up in elegant style, Messrs. James T. Bourne & Co., aided by a corps of most efficient clerks, are prepared to transact business to any extent required, with dispatch and exactness. Convenient to the landing and the busiest mart of trade, with no stairway to climb, with courteous and attentive clerks always on hand, this may justly be styled one of the institutions of the city.

LEGAL MUDDLE.—In the Circuit Court of Shelby county, on Saturday, Colonel Bullock appeared as the attorney for F. L. Warner, and asked that he be inducted in office as Circuit Court Clerk, presenting a petition alleging that, the office being vacant, at the first election after the adoption of the amended Constitution J. W. Brooks, was elected clerk, and failing to qualify, Judge Reeves appointed M. D. L. Stewart clerk; that at the election in March, 1866, John Meehan was elected, but the Judge refused to induct him in office until he could hear the contest made by Stewart, the old clerk. Before this was decided, Mr. Meehan died, and at the October, 1866, election F. L. Warner was elected. At the last term Judge Reeves decided that the Meehan suit was abated by his death, and that there were irregularities in the vote in the first poll of the Fifth district (Pinch) sufficient to throw out that vote and thus elect Stewart. The case was ordered to stand over until Warner and his sureties appeared in person.

TOMENY RAVETH.—There was lamentation loud and curses deep in Mr. J. M. Tomeny's office about half past three yesterday afternoon. Barbour Lewis was J. M.'s theme. Admiring negroes in the corridor's outside, and two or three select, if not elect, white folks inside, were the auditors. Barbour was "a traitor to his party and a traitor to his friends. He had sold out his party and had sold out his friends, and would have sold out his honor if he had had any to sell out. He was bought. He (Mr. T.) could not prove it, but he firmly believed Barbour was bought and had sold himself to the very d—nd—st set of Conservatives in Louisville. If we could not depend on our own party, who could we depend on?" etc. Moreover, Mr. Tomeny says he will repeat this same language to Barbour himself, so let Barbour Lewis look out. If this happy couple of "nigger riders" were anything else but Radicals, we would say look out for squalls, the music of the pistol bullet and the glimmer of the bowie; but being of that class who never resent anything unless they have their enemy completely in their power, we expect all will be serene between them in less than three days.

B. J. SEMMES & CO.—It does us good to refer to these sterling merchants and whole hearted men. Following the fortunes of the country through its darkest hour, they emerged from the conflict to endeavor, by energy and enterprise, to build up their wrecked fortunes. In this we are glad to see that they are being successful, as the large invoices, the fine stock, and the large amount of patronage they are receiving fully attest. They deserve this not alone for their reputations as men, but for the excellence of the wares they offer for the delectation of their patrons. Here Bacchus himself might revel, and never tire, and the whole of Olympus get drunk, and scarcely reduce their stock. They are direct importers, and here you can find Martelle brandies, Port, Sherry and other wines; besides, they are agents for Moet & Chairdon's, Munn & Co's Champagne wines and the celebrated brand of "Yanuissoe whisky."

Boyd & Co., the estate being lots Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 9, lying on and near the Raleigh plank road, as laid down in the plan of sub-division of the tract bought by J. R. Ferguson at Clerk and Master's sale, May 15, 1854.

SHELBY COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.—On yesterday the jury in the case of James Shirley, indictment for forgery, returned a verdict of not guilty.

A jury is being made up to try Wm. Hollaway, indictment for murder. The prisoner, Hollaway, was found guilty at a former term of this Court of the murder of Slade, near Cuba, Tennessee, and sentenced to eleven years imprisonment in the penitentiary. The case was appealed, and the Supreme Court at its last session set the verdict aside and granted him a new trial.

RICE, STIX & CO.—We would direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Rice, Stix & Co., 307 Main street. Taking foremost rank among the dry goods houses of this city, this named firm has become known all through the South. They are now preparing to close out one of the largest stocks of goods in the Southwest, at prices which will make our fair shopper's hearts jump with joy. The stock is all that the most experienced buyer for the Memphis trade could make it, and it will be sold at prices ruinously low for even these hard times.

Read the advertisement of Rice, Stix & Co. Their immense stock of fashionable dry goods will be closed out regardless of cost, to quit the retail trade.

Landlord's Association.

About twelve months ago the daily papers were repeatedly requested to aid the tenants, in order to get relief from the Shylocks, or landlords, who, without any humanity, were exacting exorbitant rents, whereto they had rights. Indignation meetings were held, the landlords, held up to public scorn, which at that time they rightly deserved, said every tenant who had made a bad speculation, and possessed little common sense. What did landlords do? Nothing—they kept quiet and cool. Men of experience—men of views, of many years—who had seen many ups and downs, knew what it all amounted to; and to those who do not know it, we will explain the secret of all the complaints. Although every one pretends to be a merchant and a good business man, few there are who thoroughly understand the great principle underlaying the commercial relations between man and man, which is nothing else but supply and demand. The incomes of professional men, merchants, landlords, farmers, manufacturers, mechanics and laborers depend solely on the direct and immediate consequence of supply and demand. For the better understanding of that principle and its propagation among the various classes, societies have been established, which in olden times were better known under the name of guilds. The writer has wondered why they, the landlords, have made an exception in the city of Memphis, to neglect their own interest, by not forming themselves into a landlord's association, like in other cities of the Union. Such a society has become a necessity henceforth, in order that landlords may protect their interests and prevent them from being imposed upon by those who have an inclination to do unfairly with them. We would suggest that some of our principal property owners should call a meeting on the subject and make an effort to assist those who cannot well afford to build houses and afterwards experience an insurmountable trouble in collecting what is due them.

INQUEST.—An inquest was held on Sunday, on the body of a female infant, found near the corner of Vance and De Soto. The fœtus was about four months old, and was either the result of miscarriage or of abortion. The coroner inclined to the latter opinion, as around the child's neck was a long linen string, placed there for what purpose he could not determine. This crime of infanticide is becoming fearfully prevalent throughout our country.

AN AMBITIOUS JACK KETCH.

Speaker Colfax's Views on Impeachment.

SOUTH BEND, INDIANA, September 27.

To the Editor of the Chicago Tribune:

Your telegraphic correspondent at Wooster, Ohio, condenses my long speech there last Tuesday into the following half dozen lines:

"In regard to impeachment Mr. Colfax said he longingly conuted the days till Congress would again meet, when Andrew Johnson would be brought before the Senate for impeachment; and in regard to the threat attributed to the President that he would prorogue Congress he said that Mr. Johnson dare not attempt it, for well he knew the end would be that his feet would dance upon the air, while the law-making power would continue to perform its functions. These sentiments were received with great applause."

That was pretty near what I said; but as, at a time like this, men who are in public life desire to be judged on their exact positions, why I ask brief space in your columns to say that I counted the days till Congress would again meet, because in twenty days after that time Ed. M. Stanton would go back again to the War Department in spite of the malignant President, who sought to expel him from the position in which he had served the country so faithfully; that when Congress resumed its legislative authority the House, in accordance with the demands of the loyal masses throughout the land, would be required to place the President before the tribunal provided by the Constitution, to defend himself there from the charges of persistent usurpations, and persistent violations of the oath which requires him to take care that the laws shall be faithfully executed; and that, while I did not believe Mr. Johnson dared to fulfill the threats against Congress now being made by his Washington organs, apparently in his name, you whoever did dare to destroy the Legislative Department of the Government, by revolutionary force, whether President, Cabinet, Minister or citizen, would be tried for his treason, and punished as a traitor, with his feet, not like the traitors of the recent rebellion, on the earth, but in the air.

SCHUYLER COLFAX.

A DEFUNCT UNITED STATES ARMY SATRAP DONE UP.

Lieutenant Bucklin (That Isn't).

From the Aberdeen Examiner.]

Once glimmering home, a hound to dwell,
Too base for earth, too mean for hell,
Whose conduct stamps him, down or up,
An arrant puppy, a pampered pup.

A thousand thanks to a merciful God to have moved the heart of General Ord to save this bloated brute, beef-eating bully, krout-fattened coward, and cold blooded cut throat court martialed and dismissed the service for disgraceful, indecent, and unsoldierly conduct.

If her nature, in her parturient efforts, spawned from her womb a frightful false conception in the shape of a mean, maculated, measely, maggot-eaten monster—a lousy, lying, leprous libertine—a sneaking, snobbish, slimy, slabbergullion—a dirty, dull-headed, distempered dog, a pitiful, prowling, pampered puppy, then she did more than overdo herself, when this cross-breed between a dirt-eating Dutchman and a bandy-shanked baboon, was whelped. So exhaustive was the process of manufacturing this mallet-headed monopoly of meanness, and illegitimate index to indecency, that it required the duplication of the debris of two hemispheres to complete the noxious, noisome job.

Go—bastard brother of brute Butler, and may the maledictions of all the indignant and insulted females, whose feelings have been outraged, and houses desecrated by your brutal obscenity, and beastly obstrusions, pursue you through life, and where ever you go may the recollection of your ungentlemanly indecencies lash your cowardly conscience, until it, and mean whisky shall bring you to your inglorious grave, where your contemptible carcass may rust and rot—

"Unwept, unhonored and unsung."

Destruction of Celebrated Works of Art.

A great misfortune has fallen upon Venice and the artistic world of Italy. The famous chapel of the Madonna del Rosario, adjacent to the Church of San Giovanni e Paolo, has been destroyed by fire. Titian's celebrated picture of the "Martyrdom of St. Peter," with, perhaps, the finest landscape in the world for background, the Madonna of Giambellino, and other works of very considerable note, were consumed by the flames. These celebrated pictures were temporarily placed in the chapel while the church was undergoing repairs. There were, besides, the celebrated wood carvings by Brustlecons and his pupils, unrivaled for taste and delicacy. A series of beautiful bas reliefs, bronze statues and statuettes of exquisite workmanship, of incalculable value, have also been destroyed. Not a few malicious reports are in circulation as to the origin of the fire. All that is really known, however, is the simple fact that, about five on the morning of the 16th of August, the fire was casually discovered by a person passing, who promptly gave notice to the parish priest and church wardens; but when the chapel door was at length opened, it was too late to stay the work of destruction.

Assistance, however, arrived in time to prevent the flames from extending to the church and the adjacent wards of the hospital di San Giovanni e Paolo, where small pox patients are usually kept. It has been conjectured that the accident was owing to the wax tapers used on the afternoon of the 15th of August, the festival of the Virgin, being left burning after the church was closed. The following is a catalogue of the principal objects destroyed within the Chapel del Rosario during the fire: 1. The celebrated picture of "St. Peter the Martyr," by Titian; 2. "The Virgin Enthroned amidst a Glory of Saints and Angels," by Giovanni Bellino; 3. Pictures by Tintoretto, representing several of "The Battle of Lepanto," "The Crucifixion," "The Virgin of the Rosary," and "The Sacred (Princely) Legion." There were also several wax coloring paintings by an unknown master. The small oval paintings of the ceiling represent the Doge and Senate. Two pictures of "The Annunciation" and the "Nativity of the Virgin," by Leonardo Vincenzo del Cardine. Facing the altar was the excellent picture by Sante Peranda, commonly called Semini. Another above the entrance represented Jesus before Pilate, by Lodovico Bassano; ten bas-reliefs, representing the "Death of the Virgin," "Assumption," and "Mortal Remains," by Brustlecons and his pupils; and a picture by Titian in Venetian mosaic, only recently completed, representing "The Annunciation." Besides the above, there were many other pictures and objects of art of less importance, all of which have been destroyed by the fire. The Academy of the Fine Arts has already commenced a subscription for the purpose of restoring the chapel.

The Greatest Cough Remedy Ever Discovered.

Compound Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha,

FOR THE COMPLETE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood and all other Lung Complaints, Tending to Consumption.

READ! READ!! READ!!!

THIS justly celebrated preparation is recommended by some of the most learned and influential physicians in the country, and will be found far superior to any remedy for the cure of all diseases of the respiratory organs. All persons who have used it for Asthma, Cough, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Croup or Hives, Consumption, Pain, soreness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the Breast and Lungs, attest to its superior efficacy in the most unqualified terms.

BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of Consumption, is entirely controlled by it. The usual symptoms of this disease, (Bronchitis) are Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Soreness of the Throat or Lungs, a Pain in the Side, a thin, Hectic Fever, accompanied with spitting of phlegm or mucus, and sometimes of blood. It is also inflammation of the membranes which line the inside of the whole of the windpipe, which, if not relieved, will extend part or the Lungs. This disease is sometimes immediately superseded by Pneumonia, which subsides in Inflammation and fever, removes the difficulty of breathing, and every other disease of the Breast and Lungs, attest to its superior efficacy in the most unqualified terms.
